Dr. Adebayo Olaniyi
Head of Department
Department of Political Science
University of Lagos
Akoka, Lagos State

Dear Dr. Olaniyi,

I am writing to formally express my interest in the Lecturer position in the Department of Political Science at the University of Lagos, as advertised on the university's official website.

With a Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of Nigeria, Nsukka, and over five years of university-level teaching experience, I am eager to bring my academic and research expertise to your distinguished faculty.

In my previous role at Nnamdi Azikiwe University, I taught courses such as Comparative Politics, Public Policy Analysis, and International Relations.

I also developed curriculum content, supervised undergraduate and postgraduate theses, and participated actively in departmental committees.

My teaching philosophy centres on encouraging critical thinking, research-based learning, and student-centred instruction.

I am passionate about advancing political science discourse in Nigeria and have published several peer-reviewed articles in both local and international journals.

I am also a member of the Nigerian Political Science Association (NPSA) and continue to engage in collaborative research on governance, electoral systems, and public administration in Africa.

I am confident that my academic background, teaching experience, and commitment to student development align well with the standards of the University of Lagos.

I would be honoured to join your academic team and contribute to both the teaching and research mandates of the department.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity for an interview where I can further discuss how my qualifications align with your department's vision.

Yours sincerely,
Dr. Chinyere Okafor
